

2022
"SAJANA"
RED WINE
NAPA VALLEY

The blending of grape varieties and vineyard sources is a tried-and-true method of winemaking in Napa Valley. In the intricate tapestry of "Sajana," our meticulous winemaking process unfolds into a sensory journey. It celebrates the power of collaboration!

The vineyards we chose to create Sajana are, indeed, an expert blend of great sites around the Valley, from elevated, rocky terrains to terraced hillsides and the valley floor. This red wine is not merely a blend: it is a symphony, orchestrated by the hands of winemaker Patrick Saboe, a testament to the artistry and passion that define Napa Valley winemaking.

Sajana is very much the sum of its parts. And as a counterpoint to more traditional, Bordeaux-style Cabernet blends produced in Napa Valley, this wine is a deliciously free-spirited expression of California grapegrowing.

GROWING SEASON

Winemakers have called 2022 "a tale of two harvests," marking it as one of Napa Valley's most distinctive vintages in recent memory. Growers relied on preparation, resilience, and adaptability to navigate the season. A stretch of triple-digit heat in early September was followed quickly by unexpected rainfall, abruptly pausing harvest and compressing picking windows. Patrick noted "22 will be a vintage that showcases the full range of flavors Napa Valley wines are known for, from zesty and vibrant to dense and powerful."

WINEMAKING

PV365's Red Blend was harvested from a handful of carefully selected vineyard sites over a month-long period from late September to mid-October 2022. After harvest, the grapes got a 3-day cold soak, then commenced on a 10-14 day primary fermentation. Another 9-13 days of extended maceration took place before the wine went to barrel to undergo malolactic fermentation.

TASTING NOTES

Draped in a dark hue, the wine beckons with an alluring depth that hints at the complex symphony within. Unveiling itself with the initial dance of dark fruits, the aromatic overture entices the senses. As the wine breathes, an earthy nose emerges, adorned with delicate notes of fresh figs and a subtle hint of plums and baking spices. On the palate, "Sajana" opens with an exuberant display of juiciness, a celebration of dark fruit-forward notes that captivate from the first sip. With aeration, the wine evolves, revealing layers of depth and structural finesse. A harmonious balance emerges between the fruity vibrancy and the grounded, earthy flavors, crafting an experience that resonates with the diverse terroirs. This full-bodied wine's story continues to unfold as the polished tannins embrace the palate, providing ample structure, while vibrant acidity adds a refreshing note to the lingering ensemble. Indulge in the decadent pleasure of a lush mouthfeel that defines "Sajana." The wine is an immediate delight, beckoning to be savored, and yet, it whispers promises of future complexity for those who choose the path of patient cellaring.
